City Council Report. (Ian)

- The City Council approved the intent to exceed the Revenue Neutral Rate for the State at the last meeting.
- There are no issues concerning Arts Council coming up in the next couple of meetings.

Nickie gave the Current Year Financial Update.

- Expenditures are still low since we didn't have Art of Photography this year, and State of the Arts is still in the planning phase. Expect those to ramp up a bit by the next financial update.

Old Business:

- Status Update on Arts & Culture Plan -
 - Nickie hit the high points of the Emerging Themes document from consultant Group Creatives.
 - The Public Arts & Culture Plan steering committee met a few weeks ago, where Group Creatives presented the document.
 - The consultant is still on track to deliver a plan around September for presentation to the City Council in November.
 - Group Creatives identified the large metal screen on the East face of the new admin building (now under construction) as a huge opportunity to do something more interesting with a budget of $90k already in place. City staff are moving forward with this idea, unless the Arts Council has any objection (there was none), and will follow up with more information.
 - Maddie suggested we start a sponsorship push for any additional artist cost beyond the $90k - this could be the project the sponsorship committee (casual) has been looking for.

New Business:

- Membership - McKay resigned on Saturday July 11th, so we have an opening now. Patricia Burrows Bishop was very interested during our previous interview process, so Abby and/or Maddie will reach out to her again.

Adjourned at 6:15pm

PLANNING MEETING

Past Show/Events

The May shows are down. Paul McMillian noted disappointment in the most recent communications in regards to taking down the show. We will follow up with him to say thank you, and send a note of thanks for showing with us..

PV Art Show - event went well. Huascar was a hit! He photographed all of his poems to document later; let's follow up with him about that. Renee noted that it has been good the last two years to have an activity - it just brings in so many more people and incites so many more conversations. Something like the activity that Ashley did at VillageFest.

VillageFest - Ashley organized a canvas with multi-colored dots for kids to draw/paint on. The piece is now on display at City Hall, and we may be able to auction it off at a later date. Adults were interested too, so maybe we could recreate it for adults at JazzFest.

Upcoming Event Updates

- July: SEE Kansas show - Bonnie
- State of the Arts - Bonnie
 - No poetry/prose submissions yet.
 - Photography submissions are few.
 - $2,130 in entry fees so far (paypal fees already subtracted)
- JazzFest - no interest in getting a booth this year.
- Recollections Poetry & Printmaking - Bonnie - everything is coming along. The poet and the printmaker are working really well together
- Special Olympics of Kansas show & Pizza Party - Maddie - will have fun mocktails and dirty sodas to go with the pizza.

Committees

- Marketing
 - Overall Coordination - Renee is getting a meeting set for next week to reorganize and make a plan.
 - Social Media - Molly wasn't here
 - Blog - Bob published a blog about parks & green spaces a week or so ago.

Planning Ahead/Next Meeting

- Discuss Google Drive
- Review our 2024/25 strategic planning outcomes and three focus areas for new members.

General Updates:Ongoing/Other

- JCDS (JoCo Developmental Services) - is interested in doing a show with us. Abby is meeting with their representative to discuss. Maddie also suggested sharing their events on our platforms.
- Maddie brought the JCPRD passport program, and suggested we start to think about doing something like this.
